UPDATE: Ukraine state of emergency impact on CWT in-country agent operations

Following on from our communication date 24 February 2022, and with the worsening situation in Ukraine now evident, we have extended our contingency plan.

While all of our colleagues are safe, effective immediately, we have decided to implement our Polish back up telephone lines as a precautionary measure, and you kindly advised to use the following number for any and all enquiries regarding travel and event arrangements relating to Ukraine until further notice:

- +48 22 505 5045

Our normal email channels are unaffected and remain active.

We will provide updates, when and if applicable, as the situation demands.
